

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

TASTE OF HOPE

Tenth Anniversary

IN MEMORY OF Jeff Innis

July 5, 1962 - January 30, 2022

Jeff was a small, slender, cover-up reliever with a psychology major from the University of Illinois and a master's degree in wit. He pitched seven seasons for the New York Mets, from 1987 through '93, and that he did so as a workhorse middle reliever.

Source: Sports Illustrated, Jeff Innis: Way Much More Than a Workhorse Middle Reliever, Jan 31, 2022

IN MEMORY OF Wayne Thompson

April 2, 1928 - January 18, 2018

Wayne Thompson was a cancer survivor and a member of the American Cancer Society. He was a dedicated professional and a loving family man. He passed away on January 18, 2018, after a long battle with cancer. He is missed dearly by his family and friends.

HALL OF HONOR

PRESENTED BY

At Taste of Hope 2023, we will feature a Hall of Honor where guests can honor a cancer survivor, someone who is fighting cancer, or a lost loved one.

IN MEMORY OF Kathy Mathews

Breast Cancer

Kathy was a loving daughter, sister, wife, mother, and grandmother. We miss her so dearly!

Your donation of $500 supports of the Society's vision for a future in which cancer no longer threatens those we love. We invite you to add to our Hall of Honor by submitting the following information to kathleen.fletcher@cancer.org by October 19, 2023.

INFORMATION NEEDED:

- Name of your loved one.
- Two sentences (maximum) describing your loved one or their cancer journey.
- Cancer Type (optional).
- Important dates (optional): Date and/or age of diagnosis, date of remission, date of birth - date of death.
- 1-2 Photos of your loved one.
- Favorite recipe/cooking memory (optional)